Joulé Technical Staffing Solutions Unveils New Website for its Technical Staffing Divisions

September 2009, Edison, NJ – Joulé Technical Staffing Solutions, a leading specialized technical staffing provider of contract, contract-to-hire and direct hire candidates, announced the launch of a brand new web presence at www.jouletechnical.com. Through the theme of "Specialized Recruitment, Superior Results" the website presents Joulé's unique position in the staffing marketplace with its strong tradition of delivering high-quality candidates and adherence to a comprehensive sourcing and selection process that lead to clients' long-term success.

The new website is designed to serve engineering, scientific and clinical hiring managers and professionals faster and better. By enhancing online communication with business clients and job candidates, Joulé helps make talent search and career networking faster and easier.

"The new website demonstrates Joulé's long-standing commitment to providing specialized recruitment and generating superior results for customers and candidates. While clients can manage employees' time, evaluate their performance and respond to surveys online, candidates can search jobs from our dynamic database and apply for new opportunities quickly," said Stephen Demanovich, Vice President of Joulé Technical Staffing Solutions. "Our goal is to make our employees more productive, processes more streamlined and clients more satisfied."

In its annual client loyalty survey, Joulé has consistently beat industry average in terms of response time, understanding of business challenges and quality service. Compared to other staffing providers, Joulé's clients are twice as likely to recommend the company to their colleagues and peers.
